POSTOFFICE SHOWS GREAT GAINS FOR BISBEE RECENTLY

Postmaster Bailey's Figures Disclose That Biggest Day in History of Postoffice Was Wednesday, July Twenty-First.

Wednesday, July 21, was the biggest day in the history of the Bisbee postoffice, according to L. R. Bailey, the postmaster. The month just past made a record which will be hard to eclipse. All of this points to the fact that Bisbee is enjoying more prosperity than she has for many years.

A postoffice is the best business barometer in any community. Now that the postoffice has its postal savings department this barometer is better established than before. It discloses that there are more people in the district and that more money is going into the trade and into the savings institutions.

Postmaster Bailey's letter is self explanatory, and follows:
Editor Bisbee Daily Review,
Bisbee, Arizona.

Dear Sir:
In order that your many readers may more fully appreciate the fact that times are mighty good, and getting better, in this district, I am handing you herewith some figures as proof. These figures represent the business done in the Postal Savings department in the Bisbee and the Lowell Post Offices. When one takes into consideration the fact that an individual can deposit not to exceed $100 in any calendar month, the data here given becomes more significant.

Wednesday, July 21, was the largest day in the history of the Post Office since the establishment of the Postal Savings Bank. There was deposited on that day a total of $2,528, which averaged $27.18 for each individual depositing. The next largest day in business done was February 6th, 1913, on which date there was a total of $2,300 deposited.

On July 1st there was a total of $106,871 to the credit of the depositors and on July 22 a total of $111,539, making an increase in deposits for the month of $4,668.
I might add that all departments of the office are enjoying like increases. Judging from the business done by the Post Office in the past month, this year promises to be one of the most prosperous in the history of the District.
L. R. BAILEY, Postmaster.

CROWDS FILLED THE AIRDOME AGAIN

The news had spread about the good show at the Airdome and the boosters were there by the hundreds. Hundreds stood up and waited for the second show. J. Sam announced he would put in more seats to accommodate the masses tonight. The new play entitled "Who Threw The Switch" will be presented. Lee Harrison will sing his Ball and the Jack parody and all new specialties will be given. The Airdome for the city benefit has won the heart of Bisbee and Warren District right from the start.

Globe says that Russian commission now in Boston is placing heavy orders for supplies for next winter.

SMUGGLING GANG IS IN RETREAT BEFORE STATE-GOVERNMENT

Another Member of the Gang Is Apprehended Wednesday at Johnson; Will Be Arraigned Before Federal Commissioner.

With county and government officials hot on the trail of the Mexican bootlegging gang, which has been working in Cochise county for some months, mesquite and other liquor of the class that is handled by them, is getting to be a scarce commodity. Wednesday evening Deputy Sheriff Herbert Wein of Johnson, arrested Cruz Flores and confiscated fifteen gallons of mesquite which he was in the act of bottling.

Flores was taken to Tombstone Wednesday evening by Sheriff Wheeler and brought to Bisbee yesterday by United States Customs Inspector Ralph. He will be given a preliminary hearing today, before Judge Taylor on
